FREEDOM'S FLAG

SONG

WORDS BY

Charles Henrison

MUSIC BY

CECIL NEILSON

PRICE 50 CENTS.

PERCY ASHDOWN
29, EAST 14TH STREET.
NEW YORK.

COPYRIGHT MDCCCXCVIII EDWIN ASHDOWN.

FREEDOM'S FLAG.

Words by
CHARLES HENRISON.

Music by CECIL NEILSON.

Marziale.
PIANO.
f
What is this flag that like an ea-gle's pin-ion Streams thro' the air and
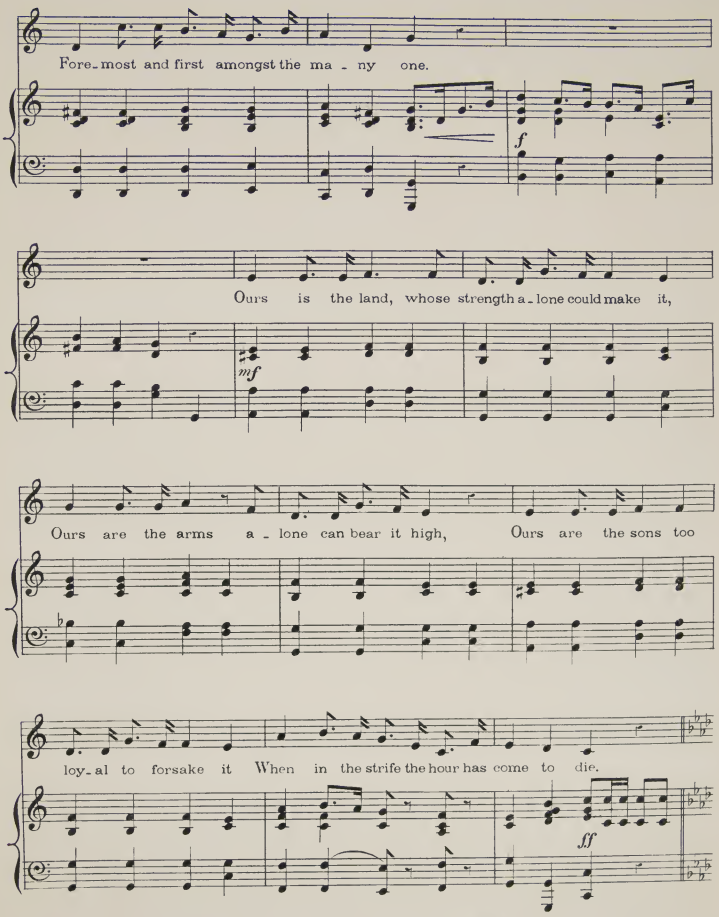
mf flames against the sun. What is the flag that sig-ni-fies do-min-ion

Copyright MDCCCXCVIII by Edwin Ashdown.

(E.A.№ 29,446.)



Fore-most and first amongst the ma - ny one.
f
Ours is the land, whose strength a-lone could make it,
mf
Ours are the arms a - lone can bear it high, Ours are the sons too loy-al to forsake it When in the strife the hour has come to die.
ff

f
Raise a - loft the flag vic - to - rious lift it high and let it wave Spread it proudly a - bove the slave and drape it o - ver the he - ro's grave Ev - 'ry fold in it is glo - rious, Glorious ev - 'ry silk - en thread Free - dom fol - lowed wher - e'er it led and it rit.
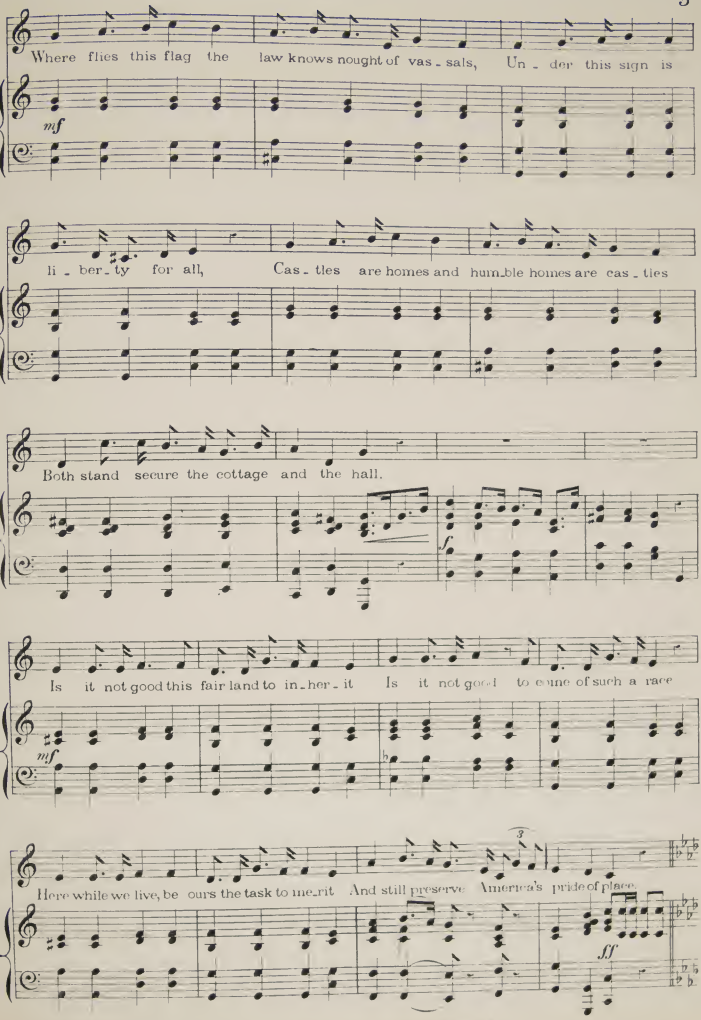
still shall lead the brave.
ral - len - tan - do.
ff fz a tempo. fz
fz
fz



Where flies this flag the law knows nought of vas - sals, Un - der this sign is
mf
li - ber - ty for all, Cas - tles are homes and hum.ble homes are cas - tles Both stand secure the cottage and the hall.
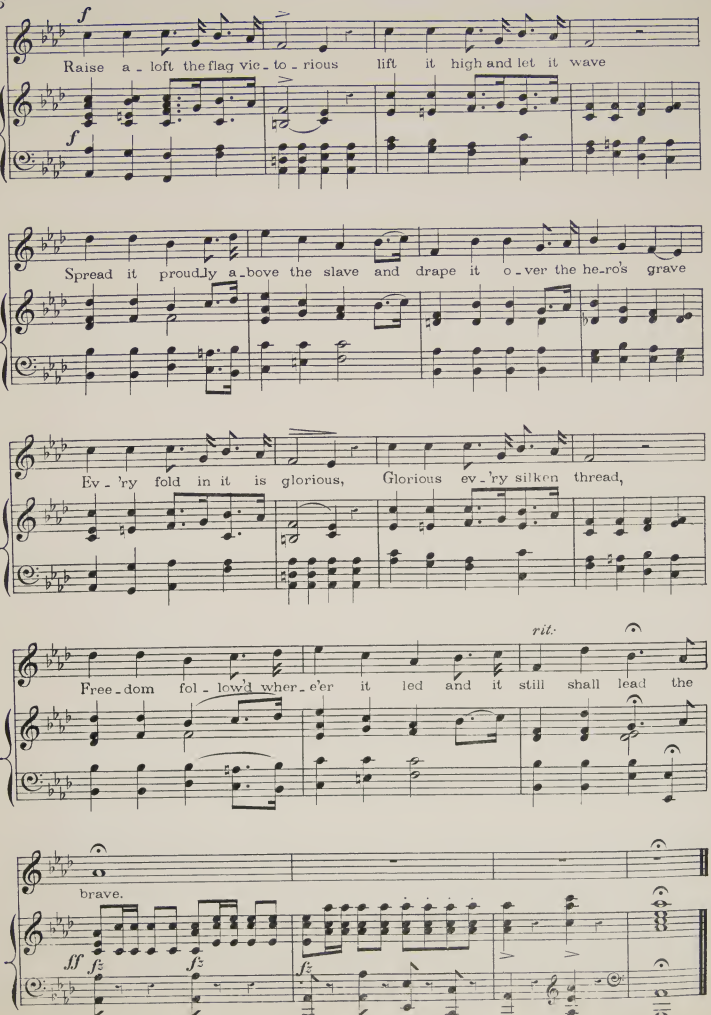
f
Is it not good this fair land to in - her - it Is it not good to e'une of such a race
mf
3
Here while we live, be ours the task to me.rit And still preserve America's pride of place.
ff

(E. A. № 29,416.)



f
Raise a - loft the flag vic - to - rious lift it high and let it wave
f
Spread it proudly a - bove the slave and drape it o - ver the he-ro's grave
Ev - 'ry fold in it is glorious, Glorious ev - 'ry silken thread,
rit.
Free - dom fol - lowd wher - e'er it led and it still shall lead the brave.
ff
fz
fz
fz